Not illustrated. 1906 Excerpt: .effective than the notices posted on bulletin boards asking finders to please return to. Some time ago a lady s fur boa was found by a student and turned in at the office. An advertisement was inserted in a paper by the lady and then she learned that such a boa was advertised as lost in Madison Hall. Notes. If finders of articles will report them promptly at the office and losers will come there for information, a larger number of misplaced articles would find their owners again. When, after a reasonable length of time, an article remains still unclaimed, the finder can have it returned to him; the Bureau does not attempt to appropriate the property nor to keep it indefinitely. Mid-Week Meetings There was much interest shown last Wednesday night in the student meeting. Over a hundred men, the largest attendance of the session, were present and, with such an attractive speaker as Dr. Wm. S. Dodd, the meeting was a great success. Dr. Dodd told about his medical missionary work in Turkey, its attractive features as well as its hardships and trials how he started his hospital in Cesarea and how it has since become a powerful means of ministering not only to physical needs but also to those of the soul. One of the great problems of the Christian church today is to know how to deal with the followers of Mohammed, who are so strong and numerous. The next meeting on January...
