Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 178 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Most books on this subject fall into two categories: How-To s and Grand Expeditions. Paddle Adventuring happily fills some of the inviting spaces in-between. This tribute ranges from the joy and zen of paddling to the zany, from novice to skilled tripping and family cruising. It reflects useful lessons learned and possibilities that beckon - from local to favored waters like Ontario lakes country, Chesapeake and Florida rivers, New England, the British Columbia coast, Alaska, coastal and interior Belize. Millions of us are beneficiaries of a vast array of new outdoor and on-the-water possibilities, offering more than a lifetime of easily pursued adventure from mild to wild, from global in scope to after work, and right around home. Paddling is a universal activity unrestricted by age or sex that almost anyone can do, a recreational style that is simple, versatile, hip, wholesome, ecologically friendly, affordable, a door to freedom, connecting with nature and providing easy access to varieties of joyous adventuring. Increasingly we need outlets which offer diversion and simplicity in the face of daily complexity. Recent announcements touting hundreds of planned, You Can Paddle events in the United States put it this way: Paddling brings sanity to an insane world. It quiets society s noise and reconnects us to something vital and real. Paddling can change your life if you let it. .Chevy Trucks. James Raffan, author of Bark, Skin and Cedar, has written To paddle a canoe is to embark on a luminal journey that can sweep a willing heart across thresholds of new worlds.
