Excerpt: .through the dense forest north of the Prah, building bridges, placing corduroy over impassable swamps, and laying the cable up toward Kwisa. Major Baden-Powell and Captain Graham were pushing on with the scouts, and Major Gordon, late Commandant at Prahsu, to whom the cleanliness and good order of the camp were due, was marching up to form a camp and advance depot at Kwisa on the other side of the Adansi Hills. On January 3rd, the Special Service Corps marched into Prahsu in splendid condition, under Colonel Stopford. On December 27th an advance party disembarked under Major Northcott, and drew all equipment, proceeding to Jaycuma to make things ready. The main body landed next day, and marched at once up country. That first day s march to A BURIAL IN THE BUSH. ror Jaycuma proved terribly trying to the troops. Numbers fell exhausted by...
