I could not see over them, and get my ears snapped for it, too; and the high, winding stairs to the old box-pulpit with a sounding-board overhead, very much like a big umbrella to an express wagon nowadays! And how it would shake when the Bible was pounded in the days of the Rev. Noah Crane! I always had him associated with Noahs Ark, because of his age and venerable appearance and name. He had his hearers all under conviction, he used to say, when he lived in Newark and preached to the spirits in prison (the penitentiary). After Mr. Crane came Mr. Wyckoff. He used to have the children come to his house Saturday afternoon, and to hold a meeting with them. The iirst time I went, he read about Josiah and talked about him. He began to serve the Lord when he was eight...
